

Public University
Web Accessibility Evaluation
2006

Improvement Plans, Policies, Training, Vendors

Institution	Plans to Fix Problems Identified in Evaluation	Plans to Evaluate Additional Web Pages	Policies	Training & Support	Vendors
CSU	will correct & reevaluate by end of Sept. 2006 to determine IWAS compliance; annual evaluation to follow	evaluate & notify developers; include testing by individuals w/disabilities	will be reviewed & edited as needed	remind developers of IWAS requirements
EIU	will upgrade top-level pages to meet Priority 2 status	will begin redesign (summer 2007) through new CMS, 50% of pages to be redesigned by summer 2008	currently being developed based on W3 guidelines	training for all developers; consultations; faculty given access to CMS; ADA workstations for ind. w/disabilities
GSU		all pages to be 508 compliant by June 2007; all pages W3C compliant by June 2008	will develop based on W3C (12/06)
ISU	will be correcting	continue with annual checks & redesign as needed	develop additional guidelines (07/01/06)	all pages developed centrally (1/1/07)
NEIU	corrected; will be reviewed quarterly	quarterly reviews w/ feedback to help meet IWAS & W3C	will clarify & enhance	training for developers; testing assistance; handbook; addtl testing software
NIU	site owners to be notified	40-60% of pages to be accessible in the short-term	in place	work towards centrally supported standards-based CMS; tips & consultations	require Voluntary Product Accessibility Template through procurement process
SIUC	will work to correct problems & ramp up efforts to address problems beyond those found in evaluation	increase # of pages evaluated using industry tools	all new pages to be 508 compliant by January 2006 - goal not met as of yet but continuing to work towards	continuing workshops; online resources; templates; training developers to test	will look for vendors with tools & solutions that expedite goal of becoming fully accessible
SIUE	to be corrected (some by 7/1/06; others by 10/2007)	convert pages to CMS & fix during conversion; annual review of ownership to include evaluation		training for developers during CMS conversion
UIC	Chancellor's designee to oversee implementation of best practices	new & redesigned pages will be evaluated; legacy pages will have contact info for alternative format	will develop policies & process for evaluation & reporting	compliance committee formed to administer plan	work w/ web-interface vendors & software vendors
UIS	will correct & monitor; currently redesigning all upper level pages	testing by users w/ and w/o disabilities; use of additional evaluation tools; redesigned pages ongoing; complete redesign by June 2008	will revise & strengthen; move to CMS & template system is underway	will provide templates & training for developers; division web liaisons will monitor progress; distributing various tools
UIUC	will correct & monitor	will expand review; deploy redesigned pages by January 2007	develop administrative plan	create evaluation & development tools	work with vendors
WIU	redesign upper level pages	comprehensive review; develop prioritized plan for redesign; complete redesign by June 2008	will publicize standards & policies	training for developers; templates	