

The Illinois Institute of Art – Chicago, Schaumburg, and Tinley Park

The Illinois Institute of Art – Schaumburg and Chicago closed on December 28, 2018. The Illinois Institute of Art – Tinley Park previously closed on September 30, 2017.

History:

The Illinois Institute of Art is part of the exciting history of Chicago. Founded in 1916 as The Commercial Arts School, The Illinois Institute of Art was one of the first applied art and design colleges in the United States. The school was widely known in the 1930s as Ray-Vogue School, with professional programs in art, design and fashion. The school was renamed Ray College of Design in 1981, and joined The Art Institutes system of schools in 1995. The Illinois Institute of Art offers Bachelor of Fine Arts, Bachelor of Arts, Bachelor of Science, Bachelor of Applied Science, and Associate of Applied Science degrees, as well as diploma programs.

Accreditation:

The Illinois Institute of Art – Tinley Park was accredited by the Higher Learning Commission.

The Illinois Institute of Art – Chicago and Schaumburg campuses transitioned to being a candidate for accreditation after previously being accredited. The Higher Learning Commission (HLC) Board of Trustees voted to impose “Change of Control-Candidacy” on the Institutes as of the January 20 close of their sale by Education Management Corp. to the Dream Center Foundation through Dream Center Education Holdings. Effective November 1, 2018, the HLC Board of Trustees acted to continue candidacy status for both Institutes through their announced December 28, 2018 closure date.
