

Illinois Baptist College

Illinois Baptist College officially closed on July 1, 2020. Illinois Baptist College was a small Baptist college located in Washington, Illinois. Illinois Baptist College, originally named Illinois Missionary Baptist Institute, began in 1964. According to the college's catalog, "with II Timothy 2:15 in mind, members of Beverly Manor Missionary Baptist Church were convicted of the need of a training station for preachers."

Accreditation:

Illinois Baptist College was not accredited.

Transfer Credits:

MyCreditsTransfer is a statewide initiative designed to facilitate transfer within Illinois using the nationally available tool, Transferology. Within Transferology find the courses that transfer between institutions, degree requirements your courses satisfy and different majors that institutions offer. Many Illinois institutions participate in Transferology and it is free for anyone to use.

Obtaining Transcripts:

Students or graduates who have attended the institution under the name Illinois Baptist College or its previous name, Illinois Missionary Baptist Institute, may still obtain transcripts by contacting Beverly Manor Missionary Baptist Church at (309) 745-9229 or (309) 745-8927. You may email the church at bmbccontact@gmail.com. The college is committed to providing transcripts and diplomas to all students, regardless of the balance due on their tuition account.

In the event you are unable to contact the church, please email info@ibhe.org for assistance.
