MOTION 2:

Members of the public are offered the opportunity to address the Task Force on Campus Sexual Misconduct Climate Surveys virtually at each properly noticed public meeting pursuant to the Open Meetings Act (5 ILCS 120). The public's ability to comment at public meetings is only constrained by procedural rules put in place by each subject public body.

As such, the Task Force on Campus Sexual Misconduct Climate Surveys requires that members of the public request an opportunity to provide public comment at a time and manner specified at the beginning of each meeting. Public comment may be made virtually and/or telephonically. The Chair or designee will recognize public commenters in the order in which they registered their interest in providing comment. While the Task Force on Campus Sexual Misconduct Climate Surveys welcomes public comment, the Chair is permitted to limit the time comment may be made by an individual to no less than two minutes to permit as many comments as possible while also maintaining decorum of each public meeting.
