MacMurray College

MacMurray College announced closure on Friday, March 27, 2020 and will cease operations at the end of the Spring 2020 semester. MacMurray College is a small private liberal arts college located in Jacksonville, Illinois.

Accreditation:
MacMurray College is accredited by the Higher Learning Commission: https://www.hlcommission.org.

Important Information from MacMurray College: Please visit MacMurray’s website for more information at www.mac.edu

Transfer Options/Agreements: MacMurray has signed transfer agreements with six institutions located in the central area of the state of Illinois. Those institutions include Blackburn College, Eureka College, Greenville University, Illinois College, Millikin University, and Monmouth College. Staff are working on securing additional transfer agreements/options.

Current students, please note: All institutions in which MacMurray has secured Memoranda of Understanding (transfer agreements) with will receive a current unofficial transcript for admission purposes as well as official transcript once final grades are posted at the conclusion of the Spring 2020 semester.

Transfer Credits:
MyCreditsTransfer is a statewide initiative designed to facilitate transfer within Illinois using the nationally available tool, Transferology. Within Transferology find the courses that transfer between institutions, degree requirements your courses satisfy and different majors that institutions offer. Many Illinois institutions participate in Transferology and it is free for anyone to use.

VA Benefits:
Please reach out to Dan Wellman at DAN.WELLMAN@illinois.go or 217-782-7838 for questions about VA benefits.

How to Obtain a Transcript:
The current process to request transcripts has not changed. Students and alumni can order official transcripts through the Parchment electronic service.

2. Follow the on-site directions to submit orders.

Your legal signature is required to release a transcript which is collected by Parchment, so MacMurray cannot accept requests by phone. Ordering in person or by mail, fax, or email also is no longer available. You must submit a Parchment request, pay the transcript fee and resolve any outstanding holds at MacMurray before we can release transcripts to Parchment for delivery.

All transcripts, including those sent directly to you, require the same processing. Transcripts through Parchment are a total of $15 including their fee. Additional delivery options through Parchment are ordered and paid through them.

For further information or in case of problems, please contact the Registrar's Office at 217-479-7017 or email registrar@mac.edu.
