

1 North Old State Capitol Plaza
Springfield, IL

Thursday November 8, 2018

College and Career Interest Taskforce Foundational Meeting

Agenda

- I) Welcome and introductions
Dr. Eric Lichtenberger, Illinois Board of Higher Education (IBHE): Deputy Director for Information Management and Research
- II) Charge of the taskforce
Dr. Eric Lichtenberger, IBHE
- III) Uses of college and career interest information from the research perspective
Dr. Eric Lichtenberger, IBHE
- IV) Uses of information derived from the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA)
Ellen Greenan, the Illinois Student Assistance Commission (ISAC): Deputy Director for MAP Forecasting and Analysis
- V) How college and career interest information is used by a public university for planning associated with the student life cycle (recruitment, admissions, enrollment, retention, and graduation)
Dr. Jana Abrecht, Associate Vice President for Enrollment Management: Illinois State University
- VI) Future topics (i.e., student privacy; FERPA; other current sources of college and career interest information of high school students such as high school transcripts, SAT/ACT, etc.; utility of the different sources information; potential sharing mechanisms; barriers; data security; others)
- VII) Future meetings: dates, location, and format (in person or webinar)